

RECOGNIZING MR. JOHN JACKSON
FOR HIS COMMITMENT TO THE COMMUNITY

HON. BENNIE G. THOMPSON

OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, December 2, 2011

Mr. THOMPSON of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor entrepreneur and faithful exponent of his community, Mr. John Jackson. Mr. Jackson has owned and operated his own farm in Leake County, Mississippi for the past twenty years.

Mr. Jackson comes from a long line of entrepreneurs and community servicemen. He is the son of a blacksmith and grandson and son-in-law of farmers. Even after years of witnessing his family undergo oppression, Mr. Jackson still rose to become one of Leake County's leading servicemen.

He served as president of the Thomastown Attendance Center Booster Club for four years; trustee on the Leake Memorial Hospital Board for two years; and is an active member of the Leake County Voters League. Mr. Speaker, I ask that you and my colleagues join me in recognizing Mr. John Jackson for his dedication to serving the Leake County community.

HONORING DR. EDWARD WAITE
MILLER

HON. LYNN C. WOOLSEY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, December 2, 2011

Ms. WOOLSEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise in sadness today to honor my friend, Dr. Edward Waite Miller, who passed away October 27, 2012, at the age of 92. He was a prominent surgeon and writer in Marin County, California, as well as a loving family man.

Born in Oyster Bay, New York, in 1919, Dr. Miller studied at Union College in Schenectady and at Cornell Medical School with an internship at Boston City Hospital. He then served at the US Naval Hospital in Corpus Christi and in the South Pacific during WWII. He was awarded the American Theatre, Asiatic-Pacific, and Victory Medals. Reactivated in 1953, his service varied from making training films in the California desert to witnessing nuclear testing at the Bikini Atoll. He then received the Korean Service, United Nations, and National Defense Medals.

Dr. Miller also had a distinguished medical career. While working as a research fellow at the Cleveland Clinic with Dr. Willem Kolff in the 1950s, he published some seminal studies on the angiography of the heart that led to research in the new practice of coronary bypass surgery. He later worked as a surgeon in Marin General Hospital in Greenbrae, CA, and Children's Hospital in San Francisco, CA, and as a physician at Novato Community Hospital in Novato, CA.

In retirement Dr. Miller became well known in the community and around the world for his writing in the Coastal Post newspaper, a Marin County publication that gave him free rein to speak out on issues he was passionate about. From advocacy for peace and human rights to his sometimes controversial pro-Palestinian stance, he penned opinion pieces that reflected his deeply held beliefs and his great knowledge of world events.

I had many conversations with Ed Miller about these issues, and, although I sometimes didn't agree with him, I always enjoyed our time together and appreciated his commitment and his compassion. He loved discussing everything from politics to poetry (which he quoted from memory) with friends and family.

A long-time resident of the Lucas Valley area, Dr. Miller enjoyed landscaping his yard, and he was a board member and President of the Lucas Valley Homeowners' Association.

Dr. Miller is survived by his wife Fusae Ito Miller; his children and stepchildren, Trudy Vriethoff, Susan Ray, Lori Callahan, Jeffrey Miller, Grace Bransford, and Robert Fleming and their spouses; and 5 grandchildren.

Mr. Speaker, I always looked forward to seeing Ed Miller and will miss our lively discussions. Please join me in offering condolences to his family and friends.

TERMINATING PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION CAMPAIGN FUND AND
ELECTION ASSISTANCE COMMISSION

SPEECH OF

HON. MAZIE K. HIRONO

OF HAWAII

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 1, 2011

Ms. HIRONO. Mr. Speaker, yesterday the House passed H.R. 3463, a bill terminating the Election Assistance Commission and the Presidential Election Campaign Fund. I voted "no".

I also opposed the House-passed legislation in January to eliminate the Presidential Election Campaign Fund (H.R. 359), as well as the previously unsuccessful attempt in June to pass a bill eliminating the Election Assistance Commission (H.R. 672). H.R. 3463 combined these previously considered bills to pay for the cost of the two bills the House considered yesterday and today (H.R. 527 and H.R. 3010). I also voted against those bills because they reduce the ability of federal agencies, such as the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), to implement regulations to protect public health, workers, and the environment.

The Election Assistance Commission was established in 2002 as part of the Help America Vote Act. That legislation was enacted because of the widespread irregularities and controversy surrounding the 2000 presidential elections. The commission's immediate role was to oversee payments to states to help them replace punch card and lever voting systems and to develop statewide voter databases. The commission also operates a federal voting system testing and certification program and maintains an election administration information clearinghouse. State and local governments rely on the services provided by the Commission. One year before another presidential election, now is not the time to eliminate the Commission.

The Presidential Campaign Fund was created to establish a system and spending limits for publicly financed presidential elections, providing opportunities for greater competition and transparency. The law that created the Fund in 1972 clearly needs some updating, but it should not be repealed.

THE DAVIS FAMILY GOES THE EXTRA MILE IN HONORING OUR NATION'S WOUNDED HEROES

HON. C.W. BILL YOUNG

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, December 2, 2011

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize Mr. and Mrs. Dano Davis, the rest of the Davis Family, and the staff and volunteers of the D-Dot Ranch in Jacksonville, Florida. For the past five years, the D-Dot Ranch has semi-annually hosted four wounded military returnees from Iraq, Afghanistan and other conflicts, for a three-day respite at the D-Dot Ranch.

This respite has included food and lodging in their spectacular bunk house lodge and a one of a kind special Florida outdoor experience. Participants have included heroes who have lost eyes, arms and legs, as well as other physical and mental impairments.

These respite visits have helped many highly-deserving individuals to realize they can still enjoy the great outdoors in spite of their impairment challenges. Personnel at Walter Reed, Bethesda and other military healthcare facilities have reported significant therapeutic benefit for these participants.

Mr. Speaker, it is my hope that my colleagues join me in saying thank you to the Davis Family and the staff at the D-Dot Ranch for a job well done. America owes our wounded heroes a debt of gratitude that we can
